CLASSES

In 2007 Encore Dance and Musical Theatre School will be introducing the Trinity Guildhall Syllabus to drama & theatre students. Trinity Guildhall is an international examination board with results from these examinations recognised in over 50 countries. Students will be able to design a personalised program to accentuate their skills and strengths in drama and musical theatre.

DRAMA AND SPEECH

Young Performers

Students will explore the world of drama through creativity, improvisation and imagination. They will discover new and exciting ways to use voice, body and movement. This class encourages the development of drama skills and teamwork.

Intermediate Drama & Speech

Through the exploration of a variety of texts, students will discover exciting ways to add personal interpretation to a performance. In this class students will build a strong understanding and confidence in voice, body and movement. Class sizes are a maximum of 5, with private lessons available.

Senior Drama & Speech

In this class students will create an exciting personalised program built on the foundations of character and improvisation. Students will explore a variety of texts including poetry and prose as well as classic and contemporary scripts. Class sizes are a maximum of 5 with private lessons also available. Pass exam results may be credited towards Tasmanian Certificate of Education (TCE) scores.

THEATRE

Intermediate Musical Theatre

This is an intermediate class designed to incorporate a combination of drama, literature, song and dance. In these classes students are given the opportunity to design a personal program using poetry, prose, drama, improvisation, song and dance. Class sizes are a maximum of 5 with private lessons available.

Senior Musical Theatre

Students will create a personalised program with use of script writing, improvisation, literature, dance and song. Class sizes are a maximum of 5. Pass exam results may be credited towards Tasmanian Certificate of Education (TCE) scores.
